Have you thought about how much business is conducted on the golf course? Strengthen your business partnerships and demonstrate your dedication to clients and key employees by purchasing a corporate membership at Brandermill Country Club today! Relationships are one of the keys to successful business growth. Brandermill Country Club is here to assist you in the continued positive development of your relationships and to promote loyalty with your clients and employees when they realize just how much you are willing to offer them.

A memorable round of golf is a relatively inexpensive but effective way for your company to:

- Distinguish itself from competitors
- Build relationships with potential clients
- Reinforce relationships with existing clients
- Thank clients for their valued business
- Show appreciation to your valued employees

Brandermill Country Club understands that within the current economic climate, companies need all the advantages they can get. With our corporate memberships you will receive:

- A complimentary golf outing for up to 16 players each year (pay for cart fee only)
- A complimentary golf clinic for up to 16 people each year
- Complimentary usage of the clubhouse for off-site meetings, private evening functions and Holiday parties

Purchasing a Corporate Membership will entitle your chosen employee members to:

- Full golf privileges
- Complimentary range balls
- Complimentary locker for designated members
- 6 complimentary guest passes each year per designated member to use with clients or other employees
- Preferred guest rates - $20 off published rates
- Priority access to tee times. Plan participants may reserve tee times 21 days in advance
- Complimentary use of the swimming pool, tennis courts, clubhouse and year round social activities

Brandermill Country Club will be happy to work with you to design the corporate plan that works best for your company. Please contact Mike Hatch, General Manager or Darcy Warren, Sales Manager at 744-1185 to request more information.
